JUDGMENT FOR THE FULL

AMOUNT.

The case of Ormsby County 'vs. the State of Ne vada was decided yesterday morning by Judge Rising. The Court gave judgment for the full amount with costs against the State

The principal bone of contention in the bill was the APPEAL'S charge for a vertising, the Tribune's charge for prining the election proclamation and the officeial Clerk.

The Court allowed every item and the APPEAL's charge of five successive insertions of the advertisement was held to be correct by the Court.

This is the third time that the position taken by the APPEAL relative to legal advertising has been sustained by the Court. The point made is that while one insertion per week is held to be suffleient by the law, that when an authorized board makes a contract for additional insertions the publisher is entitled to additional compensation.

The Court held that the Legislature conferred the power to contract for advertising on the Board of County Commissioners and considering the shortness of time and the importance of the election that the five daily insertions were proper and legal under the wording of the special election law.

Lyon county has won its case, Storey has woneand Ormsby has won also. Five more cases are pending, all of which will, as the last three have, pile up costs on costs against the state and after the matter has been three times decided the people are in no humor to see a useless and senseless contest made against the balance af the bills.

Under the false cry of economy the Board of Capitol commissioners have caused the taxpayers great additional expense and it is now time that the Attorney General called a halt, confessed judgment and offered no further obstruction to the balance of the bills being paid. It is by far the most graceful acceptance of the situation.

A Cold-Blooded Wretch.

It is claimed by the Daily Report that Rev. Mr. Hill, while Chaplain of the San Quentin Prison three years ago received the death-bed confession of a convict whose testimony had consigned to life imprisonment two innocent young men, and he made no mention of this confession till cornered by a reporter recently and accused of having received it. Asked hy he did not mention it, he replied that he "couldn't be expected to interest himself in the affairs of all the prisoners" and further that he was "not on good terms with the Governor." We say that this may seem incredible to most people, but it will not be to those who know him. It was Hill who said to a D. R. reporter some years ago: "I never speak to a prisoner unless he speaks to me first."

Some nowspaper has asked the various Senators what was essen tial to political success.

Comma adable Candor.

Most of them write unoriginal and hackneyed replies. A man, they said, must be honest, upright, truthful and able. Everybody knows that this is all nonsense. Jones of Nevada gave a characteristic reply and said that he attributed most of his success to "luck and gall." That he is able no one questions, but he was candid enough to acknowledge that his ability would not have landed

Thomas Edison says the way to execute criminals by electricity is to send a current through his body from one arm to the other. Thirty men have been instantaneously killed by electricity in accidents that have occurred in and around New York and in every case the fatal charge entered brough the hand.
